

Day 7

Daily Scripture Reading: Deuteronomy 6:10-25

Dear God,

I thank You for being my provider. Thank You for giving me Your Word on how to make my way prosperous and successful. Lord, thank You for surrounding me with Your favor like a shield as I do business in my public and private life. Thank You for continuing to open doors of opportunity. Thank You, Father, for Your Word to use as my economic strong tower during these trying financial times. I praise You with all of my heart; I will tell of all the marvelous things You have done. Your reign is forever. You execute judgment from Your throne. You judge the world with justice and the people righteously. Lord, You are a shelter for the oppressed and a refuge in times of trouble. I trust in You because I know Your Name; I know that You do not abandon those who search for You. Father, Your righteousness reaches to the highest heavens. You have done wonderful things! Who can compare with You?

Glorious Father, I declare that I am blessed because I fear You, and delight in obeying Your commands. I believe that Your plans for my finances are for good and not for disaster, to give me a prosperous future and a hope. As I am willing and obedient, according to Your Word, I will have plenty to eat. I will trust in You because I know that Your Word is Truth. I confess that my confidence is in You and not in my job, my investments, my bank accounts or myself. I commit to seeking Your Kingdom first above all things and living righteously and I know that You will give me everything I need. I rebuke old mindsets, habits and behavior patterns that have created lack and poverty. In the Name of Jesus, I stand united against thoughts of failure, defeat and mediocrity. According to Your Word, I confess that I will be wealthy and my good deeds will last forever. In Jesus Name, Amen.
