

Day 23

Daily Scripture Reading: Galatians 2:20

Dear God,

You are Jehovah Yahweh. I come before You on this beautiful day, to worship You, almighty God. You are high and lifted up. Please, pour out Your Spirit, power and love upon me. Oh Lord, I ask for supernatural transformation in my sinful life today.

Change my heart. Guide my life. Make me new, and born again, through Christ. Mold me into who I am truly meant to be.

Wash me in Your precious Blood, so I can become as white as snow. Help me to live a life set apart by the living example of Jesus Christ.

Be with me. Give me directions. Make me alive in You. Lord, I know transformation may not happen overnight, so therefore give me the patience and strength to wait upon you, as You continue this process within me over time.

In Jesus Name Amen
