

Day 2

Daily Scripture Reading: Ephesians 5:15-16

Dear God,

I come to You on this day because I desire to become a kingdom steward who faithfully oversees the protection and expansion of the assets that You have entrusted to me to manage. I know that Your overall wellbeing for me is freedom from slavery to irresponsible debt. I no longer want to live a life trapped under the weight of poor financial decisions that can lead to depression, family conflict, worry and additional emotional problems such as bondage. Today I choose wise stewardship because it ushers in the capacity for enjoyment, rest and freedom.

Proverbs 27:23 gives great wisdom, "Know well the condition of your flocks and give attention to your herds." Help me to pay attention to how well I'm doing. Allow me to be sensitive to the Holy Spirit promptings and direction. Give me the vigor to do the hard work of assessment, learning and application as it relates to the ventures, I take part in. I must have a plan—and to have a plan, I must clearly comprehend my assets and strategies for growth. Teach me Lord. Help me to create and budget and show me people that can guide me along the way. I want to live within my budget. Help me to live within my means. Give me the strength to let go of things I can no longer afford. Help me to discern between wants and needs. I repent of all the times that I have put my wants before my needs.

I know that you desire to set your people free. In Proverbs 13:22, "The sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous." I know that You can even use the wealth of others to turn my situation around. I'm releasing my faith to believe that you can!

Today, I promise to become under your covenant and align myself with your rightful rule. I pray to receive and witness the supernatural to invade my life like never before in my finances! In Jesus Name Amen.
