Prayer Focus: LOVING YOU WITH ALL OF MY HEART

Prayer:

Dear God,

You have promised to protect me, deliver me, keep me from death, shield me from calamity, command angelic charge over me, grant me victory from my enemy, answer me and help me in times of trouble, and to give me a rich and long and satisfying life, showing me Your salvation along the way.

These magnificent promises are partially realized areas of my life, because there is one huge hole, a feeling of emptiness and one reoccurring aggravating moment in which I have yet to discover victory. Right now on today, I lay all other questions and requests aside, seeking desperately with just this one thing:

May I be granted the grace to love You more? Give me the understanding to know Your love and to return love to You with all my heart, soul, mind and strength.

I want to love You from my heart.

I want my emotions to be engaged in my worship.

I want to love You organically and not superficially.

I want my thoughts to reflect how much I love You, my God, my king, my redeemer.

At the top of this year, I desire that my day-to-day actions show forth a love for You that is genuine and growing daily.

I believe I will receive the answer to this request. I am expecting Your help as I purposely engage in loving You from my heart. In Jesus Name, Amen.
