

Day 43

Daily Scripture Reading: 2 Peter 3:9

Dear God

2 Corinthians 6:2 says, "In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you.' Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." Father, we are lifting our unsaved loved ones to you. Please soften their hearts. We ask that You take their hearts of stone and turn them into a heart of flesh Ezekiel 36:26. Please open their minds to understanding. We pray that You would grant us opportunities to speak with them, but more importantly that we would continue to come to you in prayer for them.

God, You are not slack concerning your promises to us, but are longsuffering toward us, unwilling that any should perish.

Father, we ask that Your lovingkindness draw them to you. When we see them and interact with them, let it be Your love for them that they see. Help us to be patient, kind, humble, and seek our loved one's best. Help us to believe all things, hope all things, and endure all things. Help us to love them like You have loved us. Lord, we cannot do any of this apart from You. Please give us Your strength. We love you. Thank you for listening to our prayers and being all we need in every situation. We commit our loved ones to Your loving and capable hands.

In Jesus Name, Amen.
