

Day 8

Daily Scripture Reading: Jeremiah 17:7-8

Dear God,

I pray that You would remove any areas in my life that hinder me from being fruitful in Your service. I know that I am called to be fruitful and multiply. Thank You, that You have given me everything that is needful for godly living and a fruitful life.

I praise and thank You for the engrafted divine nature that I received when I was born from above, which enables me to escape the corruption of this world system and empowers me to overcome the desires of the flesh.

Deliver me from the many daily temptations and keep me I pray, from being swayed by the deceit of the enemy who masquerades as an angel of light, and yet is a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

Search my heart for any hidden sin that may hinder my spiritual growth and discover in me any areas that need to be cut away at the root, which are preventing me from living a truly fruitful life. And I pray that You would finish the good work that You started in me, so that I may be fruitful in Your service, to Your praise and glory.

In Jesus Name, Amen
