

Day 40

Daily Scripture Reading: Isaiah 26:2-3

Dear God,

I praise You that You will not desert me. You are always with me. At the end of his life, everyone left Paul, but he was not alone. He continued to fight because You were at his side, giving him strength, so the message of Your love and grace continued to be proclaimed. Father, You will never forsake me or leave me. To have You at my side gives me the ability to face whatever comes. Help me to keep my faith in You despite my circumstances because You are with me.

The peace that comes through faith in You surpasses all human understanding. Help me to keep my faith in you alone so that I would have peace and not falter in my thinking. The world wants to destroy the peace I have through faith in You. Protect my mind and heart from the things of this world. Pour out your perfect peace.

In Jesus Name, Amen.
