

Day 5

Daily Scripture Reading: Philippians 4

Dear God,

I thank You for being my source and supply. Thank You for meeting all of my needs from Your glorious riches in Christ Jesus. Thank You for being my Shepherd so I will not want for anything. I will exalt You and praise Your Name forever and ever. Lord, You are great and most worthy of praise! No one can measure Your greatness. You always keep Your promises, and You are gracious in all that You do. Father, You help the fallen and lift up those who are bent beneath their loads. I look to You in hope and expectation, as You give me my food as I need it. When You open Your hand, You satisfy the hunger and the thirst of every living thing.

Faithful Father, I confess that I will store our treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust can destroy and where thieves do not break in and steal. I agree with Your Word that my life is not measured by how much I own; therefore, I will beware of and resist covetousness. Father, I cannot serve two masters, so by faith, I will not worry about everyday life. I know that life is more than food and my body is more than clothing. Therefore, I will seek Your Kingdom above all else and live righteously, knowing that You will give me everything I need. Lord, I confess that I will not trust in uncertain riches, but I will trust in You, the living God, who gives richly all things to enjoy. I will use my money to do good and be generous to those in need, ready to share with others. By doing so, I will store up my treasures as a good foundation for the future so that I experience true life. In Jesus Name Amen.
