

Day 41

Daily Scripture Reading: Ephesians 5:18

Dear God,

I come before you in the name of Jesus, and I desire to be filled with the Holy Spirit. I thank you for the promise of this precious gift that you have given to me. Your Word tells me that if I ask, I shall receive. I believe in your faithfulness to fulfill your promises.

Lord, we ask that you pour out your Holy Spirit upon me right now today. Fill me to overflowing with your presence, power, and love. May the Holy Spirit transform and change my life, guiding me in righteousness and leading me closer to you. I pray that your Spirit would flow through me, touching the lives of those around me, bringing healing, comfort, and salvation.

I rebuke any lies or doubts that the enemy may try to bring. I declare that nothing is impossible with you, Lord, who quickens the dead. I stand firm on your Word and claim the gift of the Holy Spirit by faith.

I also pray for a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon your Church universal. Lord, I long for the presence of the Holy Spirit to be evident in our sermons, advice, and rebukes. I recognize that it is not through our own efforts or abilities, but through the power of the Holy Spirit that true transformation and revival can take place.

For those who feel a drawing towards you, Lord, I pray that they would run to the open fountain of living waters, Jesus Christ, and receive the Holy Spirit. May they be encouraged to seek you diligently, to cry out to you, and to give you no rest until they are filled with your Spirit.

I thank you, Lord, for hearing my prayer and for your faithfulness to answer. I trust in your timing and your perfect plan.

In Jesus Name, Amen.
